Tilden Wins Final Round of Tennis From Shimidzu

London, June 30 .- William T. Tilden, American tennis star, defeated Zenzo Shimidzu, in the final round of the British national tennis championship at Wimbledon today.

By defeating the Jap in straight sets at 6-4, 6-4 and 13-11, the American won the right to meet Gerald F. Patterson, the champion. in the challenge round for the title. It was a desperately fought match in which the Jap forced the American to his best tennis and fought it out with a tenacity that ran the last set into twenty-four thrilling hard-fought games.

Mrs. Lambert Chambers, former English champion, survived the final round of the British woman's championship at Wimbledon today and earned the right to meet Mile. Lenglen, the champion, in the lenge round for the championship. Mrs. Chambers, in the final round, defeated Miss Mary Ryan, former

Joe and His Black Betsy

To be more exact, it is, "Joe and Black Betsy," the latter being the apple of Joe's eye. It isn't an apple, but an apple-knocker, for Joe uses Black Betsy to wallop the apples in Ban Johnson's eight orchards. Black Betsy is Joe Jackson's own style of bat. He modeled it to his own liking, and he hasn't changed for years. Some of the other ambitious hitsmiths try to use a similar model, but it generally proves too much for them. Joe's Black Betsy is a giant bat.

TO SELECT COACH FOR OLYMPIC GAMES

New York, June 30 .- With a fairly good idea established of the make-up of the American Olympic team, the selection of a coach is becoming of paramount interest. Of a field of candidates, or eligibles, consisting of Robertson, of Pennsylvania; Moakley, of Cornell; Fitzpatrick, of Princeton; Donavon, of Harvard; Maloney, of Stanford, and Farrell, of Illinois, the veteran Cornell and Princeton coaches are growing in favor. All of the prospects who have committed themselves have discouraged the idea of one coach, favoring instead the appointment of a head coach and a staff of specialists to handle individual divisions of Rome Respess kept the wires hot overnight-fixing to kill "geese" with this bird. Without the "sack of wheat" as the boys have nicknamed Andress, Make Up should about tin can. This looks like one of the safest wagers of the present meeting. Mint Cat is tresh and good and with any kind of decent racing luck should prove the runner-up. Matinee Idol was also whispered about the Rialto. You have the info for what it is worth.

Bettina, which performed so disappointingly will understand, forget to bulk today. Now, this fily should be able to fall down, get up, turn three somersaults, then be first to look the judges in the eye. Is that strong enough? DEMPSEY MAY FIGHT IN PHILADELPHIA

New York, June 30. - Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion, may engage in an eight-round battle at one of the baseball parks in Philadelphia on the night of July 10. Jimmy Dougherty of Leiper ville, Pa., who is a great friend of Dempsey's, is reported to have secured a lease on one of the parks for the contest and if he can induce Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, to allow the champion to box on that date, he will try and sign up Bart Madden, the local heavyweight, for his opponent. Dougherty is in regard to the match.

LACK OF PLAYERS FORCES FORFEIT

The Federal Trade baseball nine of the War Interbureau League forfeited to General Supply yesterday because of lack of players. Practically all of the members of the Federal Trade team have been laid off on account of scarcity of work, and it is more than likely that the manager will be allowed to corral players from other government departments.
